Sir,

When last, I inspected the Jumma Masjid in the Mysore Town in the month of February 1902, the Mutawalli of the Masjid (Darvesh Peera) represented to me that the Masjid was again leaking badly during the rainy season, and pointed out certain addl repairs required to the store-room and the Musafirkhana within the premises of the Masjid. He also requested that he might be entrusted with the above repairs, so that he could have them done in a substantial manner.

Sir,

In reply to your docket No. 2549 dated 1st December 1905, calling for further report regarding the repairs to the Jumma Musjid at Nagpore, I have the honour to state as follows:—

2 An estimate for Rs 662/- was sanctioned by Government in their Proceedings No. 1162-3/ Misc 245-92 dated 24th November 1902 for repairing the Jumma Musjid at Nagpore and work to the extent of Rs 598-5-9 has been executed leaving a saving of Rs 63-10-3.

3. An estimate for Rs 96/- embodying all the remaining items not included in the original estimate submitted by the Amildar of the Nagpore Taluk, with his report No. 93 dated 6th December 1905 has been sanctioned by Government in their Pro-

Process dirgs. No. 3341-2 dated 14th February 1906 and the measurement Bill for Rs 76/- with a completion bill therefor has been submitted to you with my letter No. 61 dated 28/30 June 1906.

4. It is reported that the amount was being paid to the Contractor only after the work was measured after deducting the Reserve money and that no amount has been paid to the Contractor in advance.

5. The Amildar reports that the bad work executed has been rectified by the Contractor and the suggestions given to the Mukri Assistant Communicator (Rao Bahadur Krishnarao Row) and the omission in the estimate of certain works of urgent necessity have been embodied in the Estimate for Rs 96/- referred to in para 3 supra.

6. As the work according to the same

[illegible] date for Rs 6612/- imposed by the Builder to have been complied, [illegible] he has not done so.
